MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to The 67th Annual New Hampshire Antiques Show. This event includes dealers who represent many categories in the field of antiques. We strive to invite exhibitors who are both regular participants in many shows throughout the year, as well as those who limit themselves to only a few. In fact, we have some who only exhibit at this Show. This cross-section of dealers, together with the Show Committee's encouragement that participants bring items from their own collections, keep the event fresh and exciting.

While this Show Program is meant as a guide to the event, there are many advertising dealers who are not exhibiting. We encourage you to patronize their shops and their websites. In addition, our organization consists of many other fine quality dealers who will not be participating in the Show, so please visit them on-line or, better yet, in person!

Enjoy the Show!

Richard Thorner
President, New Hampshire Antiques Dealers Association

Find What You've Been Looking For

The only thing that matters is now.

Every Week in print and Every Day online, we bring you more news, more often on antiques, fine art and collectibles.

Since 1963, Antiques and the Arts Weekly has reported on the greatest things ever made. Our reports find these works at their most opportune times: as they fill the spotlight in a museum exhibition or when they change hands at auctions and through dealers around the world.

Our weekly newspaper, distributed both in print and as an E-Edition on our website at www.antiquesandthearts.com, contains essential information for buyers and sellers. Information that helps our readers — collectors, auctioneers, promoters, appraisers and dealers — follow the market and increase their knowledge of who is who and what is what.

Because in a market like this, knowledge is everything.
